Kirin: Due to the influence of technology , our lifestyle habits have changed a lot , which is quite different from the past . These days, no matter where you are , or what you do , you will use technology products , such as cell phones and digital cameras . In many situations , because of new technology being introduced , our lifestyle has become more convenient and more comfortable . Nowadays we only have to use the latest model of cell phones to do many things . Such as taking pictures, listening to music, playing games, surfing the internet etc . In the past , we had to use different products to do these things . But does technology really improve the quality of our life ? Since people use technology too often to communicate with others , people have started to complain that there are less opportunities to meet people face to face . There are also those who complain that learning how to use this new technology requires a lot of time . So people have to make their own decisions as to what kind of life they would like to live . And then choose the appropriate technology for themselves , to have their own convenient and comfortable lifestyle .

Raphael: Let's listen again to today's article at a slowed down speed .
