Raphael: Let's first listen to today's news report at a normal speed .

Kirin: Welcome to today's news report . Let's look at today's headlines . An 80 year old man said crying , his television set at home was stolen by a thief , we hope everyone will help him find it and return it . In other news, in the southern countryside , a farmer complained to a reporter , since there was very little rainfall this year , they sold less produce this year . Next, the results of the election in Germany have come out . The winner is a new person . Tomorrow is a holiday , so the stock market will be closed for one day . Due to the release of a government report saying , that recently the domestic economy has started to slowly improve , the prices of most stocks today have increased , leaving investors all laughing excitedly . Next we have our weather report , it is going to rain all day tomorrow , so for our southern farmers this is probably good news . So for those who plan to go out , please don't forget to take an umbrella . In our sports news , the basketball team representing us that is now in America for a competition won their first game , leaving all its supporters very excited . Finally tonight in the city center , there will be a magician giving everyone a free magic show . If our audience has time , you can take your families there to see it .

Raphael: Let's listen again to today's report at a slowed down speed .
