Kirin: Chinese Learn Online lesson 357 .

Hello everyone , I am Teacher Yang .

Raphael: Hello everyone , I am Teacher Lai .

Kirin: Welcome to our learning Chinese course .

Raphael: In today's lesson , we are going to continue listening to the rest of the article from last time . Let's first listen to today's article at a normal speed .

Kirin: Many media companies use technology today to change how they do business . Since audiences today have many ways to receive the latest news . So those media companies always need to release new news to attract the interest of audiences . In the past only important news would be reported on . But right now even some normal situations can become news . For example many small scandals are used by the media , and become exaggerated . Due to their often appearing on television news, some new people , became famous soon after . Reporters sometimes look for scandals or interesting things to report , by often being by the side of celebrities . In the past it was only celebrities who complained that they had no freedom , but in the future it's possible everyone might have this problem .

Raphael: Let's listen again to this article at a slowed down speed .
