Raphael: Please listen to this article that introduces Spain .

Kirin: Spain is in Europe's south west . France is to its north east , to its west is Portugal . Its area is more than 500 000 square kilometers , which is the 50th biggest in the world . The population is more than 40 million people , which is 28th largest in the world . The capital of Spain is Madrid city , the population of which is more than 3 million . In Spain , the weather of all 4 seasons is very different , the summer is extremely hot , while the winter is extremely cold . Most people's impression of Spain is that Spanish people are very enthusiastic , and their food is delicious . Apart from it having a world famous soccer team , Spain's traditional sport, bull fighting , attracts more foreign tourists to attend local events . Those who like art must also travel to Spain . Since many famous artists are from Spain , so there are many local museums and art galleries . Spain has many interesting buildings that are worth visiting . Spanish music and flamenco dance also attract a lot of people . In Spain, apart from being able to see traditions and art , actually in the world there are many boats and cars that are made in Spain , it's just that after these boats and cars are manufactured , they don't use Spanish names . So around the world , Spain is not only a big country for tourists , it is also a big country for industry .

Raphael: Let's listen again to this article at a slowed down speed .
